68th Annual Ontario Branch Educational Conference
September 24 to 26, 2007
Radisson Hotel & Conference Centre
Sudbury, Ontario

Justin Trudeau - Keynote speaker, Justin Trudeau, is constantly quoted in the media across the country on his views concerning the future of Canada. His work with a large number of diverse organizations and levels of government keeps him travelling extensively to help ensure that Canada is prepared to meet the challenges and responsibilities its future holds. The combination of Trudeau's electric charisma and inspirational message leaves audiences educated, entertained and ready to make a difference. Trudeau will be speaking about climate change.

Golf Event - This year's golf event will be held at Sudbury's only private golf club—the Idylwyld Golf and Country Club. This hilly course was built in 1922. The fairways are narrow and tree-lined with water hazards on nine holes and sand bunkers on every hole. The signature hole is #10, a 365-yard par 4, featuring a dogleg left fairway with a lake on the right side and a small sloped green surrounded by three sand bunkers. Box lunch and golf cart included.

Yuk Yuk's - Ron Josol, Bill MacIntosh, and Chris Quigley from Yuk Yuk's will provide some comedic relief following Monday night's President's Banquet.

Murder By Appointment - On Tuesday night, we have a Murder By Appointment. Fast Eddie Salmonelli has recently been inflicted with a gunshot wound to the stomach. He has called an emergency dinner with all CIPHI friends and relatives in attendance to encourage a suitable donor to "voluntarily donate" his or her particular digestive organ. Sit-down dinner included. Join us at Mr. Salmonelli's party where someone will get murdered.
